In anticipation of Rabbi Menachem Leibtag's upcoming scholar-in-residence (SIR) Shabbat (March 16-17), we will be trying a new program to facilitate making the most of his visit. On Shabbat, March 10th (the week before the SIR Shabbat), we will have five lunches hosted by families where there will be learning and discussion of articles and materials provided by Rabbi Leibtag. With more background and knowledge for the SIR Shabbat, we'll have a better opportunity to interface with the speaker and present ideas or questions from our groups. Please consider getting involved by volunteering to host a meal or by signing up to attend one - you can do so by speaking to Shoni Golin-Cahn or Rabbi Goldschmiedt, or by signing up at <http://bit.ly/2F7KhMN>. For more information, contact Shoni Golin-Cahn (sgolin212@aol.com).

The OU Women's Initiative - Is pleased to announce the Women's Grant Challenge, a targeted set of grants (up to $5,000 each) to encourage the creation of excellent and innovative women's programming that foster involvement and engagement of women of all ages in synagogue and/or community life. Entries must be submitted (<https://www.ou.org/women/grant-initiative/>) by April 30, 2018; 10 winners will be awarded.
